

The description of the door

inner door frame:

The door consists of a wooden frame from the inside in the form of a rectangle with a thickness of 28 mm and a width of 40 mm

The inner filling of the door is a cardboard honeycomb

The face of the door on both sides is 6 mm thick

So that the total thickness of the door is 40 mm

The description of the door

The final shell of the door shall be a (PVC) shell.

According to the desired color available in the market

The sides of the door are affixed with adhesive tape using a high adhesive polyurethane adhesive So that the door is tightly closed on all sides to prevent any leakage or friction of the door filling with the climate of the place

Turkish industry

The maximum size of the door leaf (Standard) is= 91*208

Door frame and ARCHITRAVE:

They are made of plastic composite material that is resistant to all environmental factors such as moisture, insects and decomposition.

The frame thickness is 36 mm with a width of 20 cm

The size of the frame is 7 * 8, movable, and this helps to expand the frame up to 32 cm

Veneer of the same material as the door panel

Door accessories:

cylinder lock handle

hinges

Turkish industry